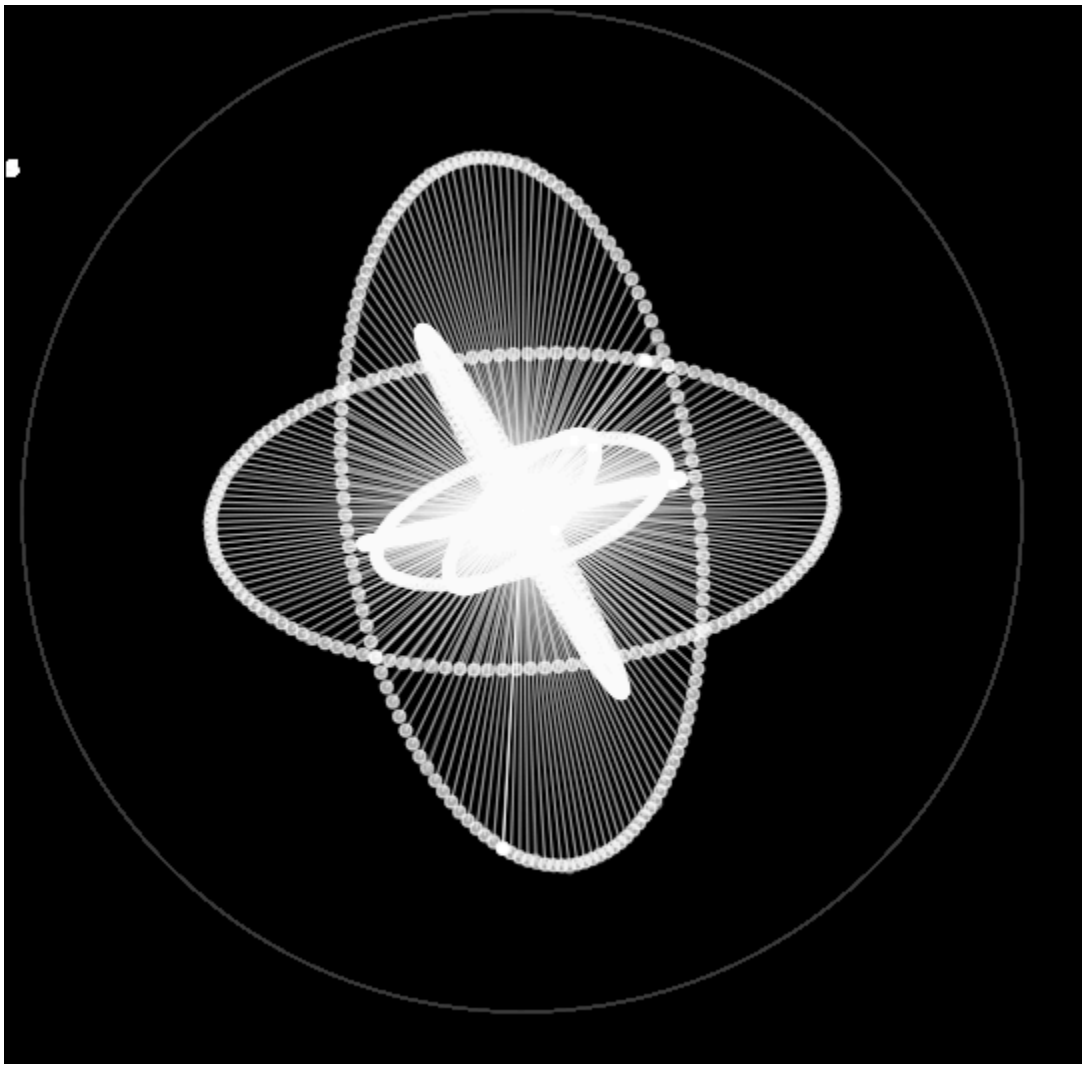
$H_{12}D$ Dynamics



The interesting thing with this system is that once the norm is stabilized, the dynamics you see are almost entirely geometric rather than explosive. The D toggles effectively select reflections/sign inversions before the global Hadamard mixing step. With accumulation enabled, some D patterns generate lattice-like attractors while others produce quasi-random orbital clouds.

View H12D

Code